

(fold)

“A stunning debut novel . . .
An American Sin is GREAT!”

Jim Barnes, Editor, Independent Publisher Online, sponsor of the IPPY Awards.

Frederick Su’s novel An American Sin was the

- ✎ Winner: Multicultural Fiction, Independent Publisher (IPPY) Book Awards 2002,
- ✎ Finalist: 2002 Ben Franklin Awards, Publishers Marketing Assoc.
- ✎ Finalist: The Binghamton (NY) University John Gardner Fiction Book Award 2001.

What they’re saying about An American Sin:

“The book is wonderfully written and deserves readership.” Don Chandler, University Bookstore, Bellevue, WA.

“I’ve never seen that point of view, someone who is Asian going to war with another Asian. An American Sin blew me out of the water. I loved it!” Carmen Palomera, Director, Rainbow Bookfest, Celebrating Authors of Color, Seattle.

“May this story bring us all a broader understanding and a greater appreciation for history and our multicultural society.” Former Washington Governor Gary Locke (who is Chinese American).

“An American Sin rightly won an IPPY. The book will deeply affect everyone who reads it.” Gary Worthington, author of India Treasures and India Fortunes.

“My benchmark is Tim O’Brien. I think Su shares his best qualities: strong characters, stark situations, and compelling writing. I was very moved and impressed by his novel.” David Markowitz, Professor of Physics Emeritus, University of Connecticut.

www.bythewrite.com

(cut)

(cut)

S h e l f t a l k e r

(cut)